BUSINESS PROFILE

I have an academic background in Industrial Psychology with a focus on providing solutions for workplace problems and increasing worker productivity and performance. In my more than ---- years of teaching, I have worked with students of all ages, from young children to senior citizens. While all of my teaching experiences have been rewarding, I embraced a second occupation and have chosen to dedicate my full time to political and activism work, joining the Future Movement.

In my current position as Coordinator General of the Expatriates and member of the Political Bureau of the Future Movement, I analyze current political trends follow current events in politics and develop accurate political reports based on my findings. I am a thorough researcher with a knack for seeing patterns and determining the most important information in issues related to Expatriate. My time management and organizational skills are excellent allowing me to stay on task and meet deadlines while juggling a great deal of information. My greatest strength is my deep knowledge in all matters related to expatriates' management from training, development, legal issues to entrepreneurship, elections and business.
